

- (2) ☐ The child is not represented by an attorney in the dependency case. (If the child is not represented, the court shall appoint an attorney for the child for purposes of the Kinship Adoption Agreement.)

- A. After the Petition for Adoption is granted, the adoption can never be set aside or changed because a party to this Agreement fails to follow its terms.
- B. After the Petition for Adoption is granted and this Agreement is approved by the court, if the parties disagree or a party files a Petition for Enforcement, Modification, or Termination of Kinship Adoption Agreement (form ADOPT-315), the validity of the adoption will not be affected.
- C. After the Petition for Adoption is granted and this Agreement is approved by the court, if the parties disagree, no party may file a Petition for Enforcement, Modification, or Termination of Kinship Adoption Agreement unless the party proves to the court that he or she has participated, or attempted to participate, in good-faith mediation or other appropriate dispute resolution.
